DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 9/29/05 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information that has been struck through has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-7, 9, 11-20, 21-28, 30, 32-49, 52-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Singhal et al. (U.S. Pub. 2005/0060001 A1 hereinafter "Singhal").

4. Singhal discloses a method and apparatus for periodically determining the posture of a patient (Fig. 7 & ¶ 63), utilizing a implantable medical device with multiple sensors, preferably three-axis accelerometers located either on or in the body (¶¶ 5 and 43-44), a processor to identify a plurality of postures (¶¶ 6, 9 and 10), having a therapy stored that is associated with each posture, and modifying the therapy and diagnostic data (¶¶ 41, 52). Singhal further discloses that the device identifies postures including if patient is sitting, standing (¶¶ 5, 66) and compares them to a threshold value (Fig. 8). Singhal also discloses that the therapy system can determine if the patient is awake (¶ 6, 9 and 10) and posture transitions (¶ 67).

5. Singhal discloses a programming device that can display parameter sets and diagnostic data in lists or graphically (¶ 52). Singhal further discloses that the user can select, view and program each parameter with the specified posture (¶¶ 30-31). Singhal also discloses that the stimulator can comprise a implantable drug pump that is capable of being used for a trial period (¶ 70).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 8, 10, 29, 31, 50-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Singhal.

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

9. Regarding claims 8, 29 and 50, Singhal discloses the claimed invention except for the processing of the diagnostic data to determine the amount of or percentage of time spent in a posture. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the processor as taught by Singhal, with a method of processing data to extract the amount of or percentage of time spent in a posture since it was known in the art that time deviations of data are used to provide beneficial diagnostic data to determine the amount of pacing required by each individual patient.

10. Regarding claim 10, 31 and 51, Singhal discloses the claimed invention except for expressly stating that the processor determines the average number of posture transitions over a period of time. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the processor as taught by Singhal, with a method of processing data to extract the average number of posture transitions over a period of time since it was known in the art that time deviations of data are used to provide beneficial diagnostic data to determine the amount of pacing required by each individual patient.
